

HOMESTEAD CONDOMINIUMS

$8,000 TAX CREDIT FOR MILITARY PERSONNEL

Federal Tax Credit is still in effect for overseas personnel.

Although the home buyer tax credit has expired for buyers signing contracts after April 30, 2010, the credit remains in effect an additional year for military personnel and foreign service employees deployed overseas for 90 days or more between January 1, 2009 and April 30, 2010.

They can still claim the credit if they sign a contract on or before April 30, 2011 and close on or before June 30, 2011.

The extended benefit could be helpful to members of the military ending tours of duty in Iraq and Afghanistan, among other places, as well as sailors returning from naval deployments across the globe.

HOMESTEAD CONDOMINIUMS

$8,000 TAX CREDIT FOR MILITARY PERSONNEL

Federal Tax Credit is still in effect for overseas personnel.

Although the home buyer tax credit has expired for buyers signing contracts after April 30, 2010, the credit remains in effect an additional year for military personnel and foreign service employees deployed overseas for 90 days or more between January 1, 2009 and April 30, 2010.

They can still claim the credit if they sign a contract on or before April 30, 2011 and close on or before June 30, 2011.

The extended benefit could be helpful to members of the military ending tours of duty in Iraq and Afghanistan, among other places, as well as sailors returning from naval deployments across the globe.